

A PEOPLE'S HISTORY OF NEGRIL, JAMAICA

Edited by David Stanfield

Contributors:
Cecille Arthurs
Christine Beck
Lascelles Beck
Delores Donaldson O'Connor
Oswald Donaldson
Trevor Forbes
Lindsay Manderson

A PEOPLE'S HISTORY OF NEGRIL, JAMAICA

Edited by David Stanfield

This book explores memories of selected people about how their relations with land and with each other have interacted with the growth of tourism in Negril, Jamaica.

The contributors to the book are donating sales revenues, after costs, to the following Negril community anti-poverty organizations

- * Negril Chamber of Commerce Building Fund for Negril Health Centre
- * St. Anthony's Kitchen in Negril
- * Theodora Project in Negril

Please support these organizations with your purchase of this book(s).
(See URL and QR code below).

Table of Contents:

- Chapter 1 - The Beginning of Tourism
- Chapter 2 - The Hill Family Lands
- Chapter 3 - Llantrisant
- Chapter 4 - Landowners and Us
- Chapter 5 - The Queen, Mr. Seaga, the Club and Children
- Chapter 6 - Lascelles, Doris and Christine Beck
- Chapter 7 - Donaldson Family
- Chapter 8 - Captain Quality
- Chapter 9 - Lindsay Manderson

Published by Terra Institute

Printed by Lulu.com

To order as paperback or ebook

